TO ALL MEMBERS,

The Management Committee presents for your consideration, the Annual Report and Statement of Accounts for the year ended 31 October, 1988.

1988 was notable for several highlights:

- The first visit to New Zealand by an ITTF President;
- World rankings were gained by New Zealand players for the first time;
- New Zealand was represented at the Olympic Games inaugural table tennis championships;
- The introduction of Kiwi Table Tennis;
- The introduction of TABLE TALK newsletter;
- Success for New Zealand at the Oceania championships;
- The 2nd Commercial Union Secondary Schools Teams championship was held;
- Increased financial grants were received from the Hillary Commission;
- Financial assistance was received from the NZ Sports Foundation;

VISIT OF ITTF PRESIDENT ICHIRO OGIMURA

When Ichiro Ogimura was elected President of the ITTF in February, 1987, he undertook in his first term as President to visit national associations throughout the world collecting opinions and listening to their development plans. By undertaking this programme he would gain a better understanding of world table tennis administration. So far he has visited over 80 countries.

In an action packed visit of 19 hours from 10.00pm on 11 October until 5.00pm on 12 October, Mr Ogimura had discussions with members of the Management Committee, met the Minister of Recreation and Sport, Hon Peter Tapsell, the Opposition spokesman on Recreation and Sport, Mr John Banks, the Chief Executive of the Hillary Commission for Recreation and Sport, Mr Gregory Aim, and the General Manager of Sportcorp, Dr John Shuttleworth. In addition, a press conference was arranged and an interview with Television New Zealand which incorporated a demonstration of Kiwi Table Tennis. Mr Ken Wilkinson BEM, the Oceania Council member on the ITTF, participated in the discussions. Ken kindly prepared a very interesting article for the last issue of TABLE TALK and excerpts from the article are included in this report.

"I come to New Zealand with a simple agenda", said Ichiro Ogimura, "The items I wish to discuss are 'How to produce a world champions from your country' and 'How to double your table tennis popularity'."

The first reaction of New Zealanders to question one would be polite laughter - it is hard enough to win the NZ Championships alone, but what about the Australian championships, or the Indonesian championships or any other international tournament which, apart from Barry Griffiths success at last year's Australian championships, have not been prominent with New Zealand successes.

The ITTF President is no fool. He had the answers to this negative reaction. "The present New Zealand standard is about equal to many other continental areas, except Europe and Asia," he said, "but even in those regions there would be countries of the same level as New Zealand. You have to strive for the highest goal standard, not the same level goal - you need a New Zealander to be world champion to create the greatest incentive and drive for your players," he added.

On the second question, President Ogimura was extremely interested in the Kiwi Table Tennis programme which is aimed at school participation at primary and intermediate levels. A demonstration was arranged using the modified blue Kiwi Table Tennis tables. The demonstration and personal interviews were televised and were shown on the local Wellington regional news.

As may be expected the matters discussed were very wide ranging. A particularly interesting topic was how to attract women and girls to table tennis. A few years ago a professional survey was undertaken in Japan and the conclusion was reached that women and girls are attracted to sport when the facilities are bright coloured and through the opportunity to wear soft, colourful garments. This is worth thinking about and well within the reach of associations which own their own stadiums. Bright background colours and a warm atmosphere will not only attract female competitors but will also attract public interest.

A very pertinent comment he made was that NZTTA had the smallest budget of any of the national associations he had so far visited!

NATIONAL COUNCIL

This was the second year of the National Council and during the year four meetings were held with the September meeting being held in Auckland during the NZ Championships.

Regional Councillors have a very important role to play and it is becoming evident that more associations are liaising with their Councillor.

Several initiatives were started and these will be reported on under their respective headings.

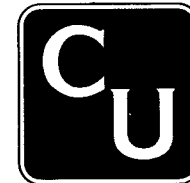

The Regional Councillors for 1989 have been elected and the following will represent the six regions:

Region 1:	John Bower
Region 2:	Geoff Rau
Region 3:	Frank Powell
Region 4:	John Lelliott
Region 5:	Merv Palmer
Region 6:	Barry Butler

Michael McAvinue (Region 3) and Ray Hughes (Region 5) did not seek re-election. To these Councillors and to Malcolm Wong (Region 4) we record our appreciation for their services to table tennis during their tenure of office.

ADMINISTRATION

The Management Committee met on ten occasions between 23 March and 8 December (the last meeting prior to the preparation of this report) and the attendance record was as follows:

John Beatson	9	Ron Menchi	9 (Note 3)
Peter Hirst	7 (Note 1)	Robin Radford	10
Dick Lynn	6 (Note 2)	Merv Allardyce	10

Note 1 - Peter Hirst was on assignment for three meetings.

Note 2 - Dick Lynn was hospitalised for one meeting.

Note 3 - Ron Menchi was overseas for one meeting.

It is very sad to have to report the disaffiliation of the Bush and North Taranaki associations. It is however, pleasing to note that table tennis is still being played and the hope is that both will re-affiliate in the near future.

A major cause for concern is the apparent continuing decrease in the number of players who are affiliated to clubs and associations. The concern is the greater because we are aware that sales of table tennis bats have significantly increased. From this, the conclusion can be fairly drawn that the numbers playing table tennis have increased but they have not been drawn into the table tennis family structure. Perhaps this matter will be redressed as a result of more planned development. This question will be covered a little later in this report.

At its September meeting, the National Council had a wide ranging discussion on the revenue base of NZTTA including the future of the national lottery. Arising from this discussion a sub-committee was formed and when it reported back to the December meeting, it strongly favoured activity fees and a player registration fee and the discontinuation of the lottery. However, opinions on the lottery were divided so it was agreed that remits be prepared for the next annual meeting proposing activity fees and a player registration fee plus a national lottery with a larger proportion of the profits being retained by associations.

There is concern at the ever increasing work load of the Executive Officer. The need for part time clerical assistance is being addressed as a matter of urgency.

DEVELOPMENTNewsletter

A national newsletter called TABLE TALK was launched and two issues were published in 1988. It was intended to send the first issue as a complimentary one to as wide a range of players as possible and then invite subscriptions for subsequent issues. The National Council decided that the second issue should also be complimentary and that future issues be by way of subscription. It is planned to publish four issues per year and the subscription for 1989 will be $10. So far about 100 subscriptions have been received.

We express our gratitude to Commercial Union and China Sports for their assistance towards the first two issues. We are also grateful to the Auckland Table Tennis Association for the supply of name and address labels for both issues.

Kiwi Table Tennis

The official New Zealand launch of KiwiSport took place in Auckland in May. Since then there have been regional launches in several KiwiSport regions and this has been followed by the introduction of Kiwi Table Tennis in several associations. A coaching manual was prepared but this is being refined to incorporate progressive lesson plans.

Through the assistance of the Otago University, a Kiwi Table Tennis coaching videotape is being prepared and it is hoped that it will be available in February, 1989.

A Skills Award scheme has been prepared and there is a good chance that a sponsor will be obtained. The scheme will be in six levels with the first three applicable to Kiwi Table Tennis.

The needs of Kiwi Table Tennis are very similar to the needs of beginner players at club level so the manual, video and Skills Award scheme will be appropriate resource material for use by clubs.

Resource File

At the 1988 annual general meeting, delegates were handed a copy of a Resource File which will be added to and amended from time to time. Additional copies were available at a nominal cost of $20 and they were offered through associations to clubs. As no orders were received it would seem that either the File does not serve a useful purpose or clubs were not advised of its availability!

5-Year Planning

The Hillary Commission has advised that from 1989 all applications for national sport funding will need to be accompanied by a 5-year development plan and the level of future grants will depend on the successful implementation of that plan.

The preparation of the NZTTA 5-year plan will require the assistance of associations as, in many respects, the success or otherwise of any New Zealand plan will depend on member associations. Information is being prepared for associations and it is planned that assistance be available to help associations in the preparation of their 5-year plans.

NATIONAL LOTTERY

The commitment of the guarantee system ensures that the budgeted profit is available to the National Body. For those associations which sell, or exceed, their allocation of tickets a useful profit also results.

NZTTA income benefitted by $18,560.

The 1988 lottery was again organised by Robert Gross on behalf of the Counties Association. We, again, express our grateful thanks to him for a job well done.

HILLARY COMMISSION FOR RECREATION AND SPORT

Our application for National Sport Funding resulted in our receiving a grant of $40,000 for the Commission's 1988/89 year. This allocation, which was double the amount received the previous year, was for strategic management plan and administration development, $11,000, and coach education, Kiwi sport etc, $29,000.

As mentioned earlier in the report, future applications for grants will need to be accompanied by a 5-year development plan and the level of funding will depend on the successful implementation of the plan.

We are grateful to the staff of the Hillary Commission whose advice and assistance has always been readily available.

NZ SPORTS FOUNDATION

As a result of applications lodged in October, 1987, the NZ Sports Foundation made grants of $2,000 each to Barry Griffiths, Peter Jackson, Maxine Goldie and Peter Hirst. Peter Hirst received his grant to enable him to attend the Asian championships to assess the progress of Barry Griffiths and Peter Jackson against world class Asian players as part of their preparation for the Olympic Games. The three players received their grants to help them further their table tennis experience and, in the case of Griffiths and Jackson, to help in their preparation for the Olympic Games.

Applications for further financial assistance were made in March, 1988, and we are still awaiting a decision.

In February, 1988, discussions took place with the Foundation on how the Foundation may be able to financially assist in raising the standard of table tennis in New Zealand. We are very keen to establish a development squad to enable selected players to train as a squad for regular periods both within New Zealand and overseas. We envisage the squad comprising some senior experienced players in addition to younger members. This would enable the younger members to benefit from the experience of the senior players and to better prepare them for international training and competition.

We have sought the Foundation's support in principle to the concept and are awaiting their confirmation.

NZ ASSEMBLY FOR SPORT

The Assembly for Sport can, perhaps, best be described as the Parliament for Sport. It represents the interests of sport in representations to the Hillary Commission and to Government.

Members are kept informed of the Activities of the Assembly and invited to comment on the many issues which they address. Significant issues which were addressed during the year included the proposals to form Regional Sports Trusts, the Government Economic Statement which proposed the taxation of Charitable Trusts and Sports Bodies and the Local Recreation and Sport Funding proposals.

OCEANIA TABLE TENNIS FEDERATION

A General Meeting was held in New Caledonia during the Oceania championships.

1. The 1990 Oceania championships have been offered to Tahiti, Papua New Guinea and New Zealand in that order.
2. The Federation will be the recipient of a grant from the ITTF share of the television rights from the 1988 Seoul Olympic Games.
3. The venue of the 1989 World Cup is Nigeria. It was agreed that the Oceania representative be the winner of the Men's singles at the 4th Oceania championships. As Barry Griffiths won the title, he will be the Oceania representative.
4. Concern was expressed at the change of format for the World Cup in 1988, and it was agreed that a strong protest be registered with the ITTF. It was the view of the Federation that all ITTF Continents must be fully represented at future World Cups.
5. Ken Wilkinson BEM (New Zealand) and Keith Bowler (Australia) were re-elected President and Executive Director respectively.

WORLD RANKINGS

The World Rankings issued by the ITTF Ranking Committee in July, 1988, included Barry Griffiths at No. 142 and Peter Jackson at No. 172.

This is the first occasion New Zealand players have gained a world ranking and our congratulations are extended to Barry and Peter.

We are confident that if they have the opportunity to play in the more important championships, they have the ability to improve on their initial positions.

PLAYER OF YEAR AWARD

BARRY JOHN GRIFFITHS (Counties) was named the 1988 Player of the Year.

Outstanding achievements included the following:

Oceania Championships:	WINNER men's singles and men's doubles.
New Zealand Championships:	WINNER men's singles and men's doubles.
Australian Championships:	WINNER men's doubles.

JUNIOR OF YEAR AWARD

The following nominations were received:

Brent Maitland (Canterbury)	Andrew Marr (Otago)
Tracey O'Connell (South Canterbury)	Bradley Roberts (Hutt Valley)
Vickie Woodman (Northland)

Although the number of nominations received was small, the submissions made on behalf of each nominee were, again, very impressive.

The 1988 Junior of the Year and the winner of the H N Ballinger Cup was 18 years old ANDREW JOHN MARR.

GOLDEN JUBILEES

Congratulations are extended to the Mid-Canterbury Association which celebrated its Golden Jubilee in 1988.

ADOPTED BALL

In accordance with the decision of the 1987 annual meeting the adopted ball for 1989 will be the NITTAKU 3-star ball, the New Zealand agents for which are John Vaughan & Co Ltd, Wellington. This ball will be used for all National tournaments, coaching schools and for any international contests held in New Zealand. For all other fixtures, associations have the choice of table tennis balls which have been approved by the NZTTA.

A full programme of National tournaments was held.

- Top 12 tournaments were held as follows:

Hosted by Auckland 22 October.

Under 19 Boys: Hosted by Wellington 30 April.
Under 19 Girls: Hosted by Canterbury 30 April.
Under 15 Boys: Hosted by Hutt Valley 23 April.
Under 15 Girls: Hosted by Hutt Valley 7 May.
(Both the under 15 tournaments were held in conjunction with the respective National coaching schools.)

North Island and South Island Championships. Over the years there has been criticism of the draws for these championships and rightly or wrongly the criticism has been directed at the host association. With the computer technology now available, the National Council has decided that in future entries for these championships should close with NZTTA who should also be responsible for the draws.

The New Zealand Championships were hosted by the Auckland Association and were notable for two interesting innovations. The teams result sheets and the individual events were processed by computer and the championships featured an extended programme. Early in the championships some criticisms were heard of the extended programme but later there was enthusiasm for the easier pace which may have contributed to the high standard of play. As the 1989 championships will be played in a condensed period of time, it will be interesting to make a comparison.

2nd New Zealand Veterans Championships. There was a tremendous atmosphere in Christchurch where over 100 players gathered (including two from Australia) for these championships. At a meeting of players held during the championships it was agreed that the Veterans championships be treated in the same way as other national championships. Instead of a special Veterans Committee, the hosting and organisation of future championships would be under the control of the host association.

The Commercial Union Secondary Schools Teams Championship finals comprised three schools which had competed in 1987, including the defending title holders Hutt Valley High School, and three new schools. Hutt Valley High School confirmed their table tennis strength by retaining the magnificent Commercial Union Trophy in overcoming a very strong challenge from Lynfield College (Auckland) in the final round.

The 1988 championship was the second of the three year sponsorship of $40,000 by Commercial Union and it was pleasing to note an increased number of teams competing in the association sections of the event.

Whilst there were some one-sided contests in the finals, it is not proposed to change the format. It would be fair to comment that the team which finished bottom probably got more benefit from their participation than any other team.

Mention should also be made of the support given to the Hastings Boys' High School team by some parents who had travelled specially from Hastings to encourage their team.

The final afternoon was attended by several executives of Commercial Union and their associated company, National Mutual. The General Manager of Commercial Union, Mr J S Lowcay, attended but was unable to stay for the presentations which were carried out by Mr Michael Hughes, Commercial Union Divisional Manager, Marketing and Sales. We were also happy to welcome Mr Ken Wilkinson BEM, President of the Oceania Table Tennis Federation, to the final afternoon. Prior to the commencement of the tournament, all players were presented with a tee shirt, sweat top, training pants and a bat cover with the compliments of Commercial Union.

This section of the report would not be complete without acknowledging the support and encouragement given by Mr R L (Bill) Bean of Commercial Union.

Commercial Union produced a very attractive full colour brochure commemorating the New Zealand final which featured eleven photographs. Copies have been sent to all associations and to the competing players through their respective associations.

Our thanks and congratulations are due to the Hutt Valley Association for again arranging billets for the visiting players and officials and for looking after them during their stay.

If the Primary/Intermediate Schools Teams Tournaments are to be continued, associations, especially the North Island associations, will need to give greater emphasis to it. It was disappointing to note that the 1988 North Island tournament, again hosted by Hutt Valley, attracted only one entry from outside the Wellington region. A number of North Island associations prominent in junior development were not represented. It is also relevant to note that it is now three years since any applications to host the North Island tournament were received for the consideration of annual general meetings.

These tournaments should be viewed as a very important part of the table tennis programme as they provide the link between Kiwi Table Tennis and the retention of players at the secondary school level.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMME

During the year New Zealand was represented at the following tournaments:

- Asian senior championships in Niigata, Japan, 15-22 May.
- Australian U15/U17 championships in Perth 26 June-1 July.
- Oceania championships in Noumea, New Caledonia, 11-16 July.
- The Australian U19/U21 championships in Mackay, 1-8 August.
- The Olympic Games in Seoul, North Korea, 18-26 September.
- The Australian Bi-centenary International Invitation teams tournament and open individual championships in Sydney, 8-13 October.
- The Australian Veterans championships in Melbourne 22-28 October.

1988 Olympic Games. Table Tennis was included in the Olympic Games for the first time at Seoul, South Korea.

In his report Peter Hirst commented: "Qualification for the Games took place in Coburg, Victoria, Australia, in August, 1987, with all IOC members in the Oceania region being invited to compete. Only Australia and New Zealand accepted the invitation. The format was for the top four men and top two women from each country to play a series of three round robin tournaments over a period of three days. As the qualifiers for the men's singles were one Australian and one New Zealander, further qualifying tournaments were held to establish the men's doubles qualifier.

"In January, 1988, with the assistance of a grant of $2,000 each from the NZ Sports Foundation and in anticipation of a pre-Games training grant from the NZ Olympic & Commonwealth Games Association, Barry Griffiths and Peter Jackson went on a fact finding tour and competed in the English, Irish and West German Open championships which were held over consecutive long weekends. The aim was to look for the extra 5% - 10% which would help to bridge the gap that exists between the Oceania region and Europe and Asia.

"The competitive programme took in the Asian championships in Japan, the Chinese Open championships, the World Cup in China and the Oceania championships in New Caledonia. Specific physical preparation was designed for speed and power. Assistance with the psychological build-up was provided by Ray Parker, an Auckland based hypnotherapist.

"As the NZOCGA suppliers were unable to supply suitable competition clothing, these items were supplied at short notice by Tamasu Co Ltd, Japan, marketers of BUTTERFLY table tennis equipment. They proved to be very practical as well as looking very smart with the NZOCGA logo.

"I understand that the crowds which attended the table tennis were consistently higher during all periods of each day than for any other sport at the Games.

ITTF President, Ichiro Ogimura, in a recent President's Newsletter confirmed the attendance. Quote "Table tennis was No.1 among all 25 sports in terms of filling our seating capacity. There were 5,000 seats at the Seoul University Gymnasium and about 1,000 of these were used for TV, journalists, umpires, photographers, players and VIP's who had complimentary tickets. Therefore 4,000 seats were available for spectators, and considering that matches were played on nine days, one might imagine that with 100% spectators the total number would be 36,000. However, 65,000 spectators bought tickets and watched table tennis. The reason for this was that SLOOC sold tickets for the morning and afternoon sessions separately. We were reported as being fourth for the total numbers of spectators."

Already, President Ogimura is looking for improvements for the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona - a larger stadium, coloured balls, white shirts, darker floor and perhaps blue tables as indoor tennis courts often appear on television nowadays.

Australian Championships.

We were dismayed to receive advice from the Australian Table Tennis Association that New Zealand would no longer be able to enter teams in the Australian senior and junior teams championships. It would seem that there is no provision in the Australian regulations to officially allow overseas teams to compete in the teams events. Peter Hirst has discussed the matter with various State officials and Ron Menchi spoke with the National Executive Director of the Australian Association whilst in Melbourne for the Australian Veterans championships. As a result Ron was assured that we would receive an invitation to the 1989 Australian junior teams championships.

SNIPPETS

 Ken Wilkinson (Life member) was awarded an ITTF Gold Award for merit. These awards are for long service to table tennis at the national and/or international level. The award was introduced this year so Ken is among the first recipients.

 David Cook successfully passed his International Umpire examination. His badge was presented to him during the NZ Championships.

APPRECIATION

During a year we are accorded assistance from a number of sources in addition to those who have already been mentioned. Associations and individuals have provided billets for teams, the Director of Coaching and Executive Officer. To these persons, and others who have assisted we say a very sincere 'thank you.'

CONCLUSION

Over the last year or so we have endeavoured to stress the need for commitment, planning and the need to move with the times.

As was mentioned in the 1987 annual report, a positive environment needs to be created to recruit administrators with some flair. Administrators need to be encouraged to try new ideas. As ITTF President, Ichiro Ogimura, put it "If we have a rigid conception of what table tennis is or should be we will never make progress."

We commend his comments to you.

REPORT OF THE NEW ZEALAND DIRECTOR OF COACHING

This year has seen a greater international programme than normal, brought about by the Olympic Games and the preparation for these Games. Our senior squad players have represented New Zealand in the Asian, Oceania, Australian, English, Irish and West German championships, the Olympic Games, the World Cup and Asian Cup. Players also competed in the Australian U21, U19, U17 and U15 championships.

Especially with the junior age group players it is viewed as an ideal coaching session for them to travel as part of a New Zealand team. The business of international table tennis is a very diverse and difficult skill to learn so the object is to learn to play well and produce good performances rather than win titles. Titles come as a result of playing well in different situations and by learning from the experience.

Players who represented New Zealand in the 1988 season were:

Malcolm Darroch (North Shore)
Barry Griffiths (Counties)
Peter Jackson (Auckland)

Non-Playing Captains

Martin Duffy (Otago), David Jackson (Auckland), Kerry Lewis (Auckland), Alan Pedley (Counties), Geoff Rau (Counties), Peter Hirst (Director of Coaching.)

Some system of funding will have to be introduced to assist the non-playing captains to travel with teams. To date they have paid 100% of their costs for the privilege of being used and, sometimes, abused.

Training for National representatives has played a major part in the success of National teams with the highlights being the men winning the Oceania teams event, Barry Griffiths won the men's singles, Barry and Peter Jackson the men's doubles and Peter and Chris Little the mixed doubles.

The Australian Senior championships brought some fine wins, especially for Barry Griffiths and Peter Jackson who won the men's doubles beating crack pairings from China, Japan and Australia. Press coverage from these championships was excellent with Reuters having a reporter at all sessions, the result being articles published daily in the major national newspapers.

OLYMPIC GAMES

The overall standard was very high. In the World Table Tennis Championships there are players you know you can beat but at the Olympic Games with a men's singles field of only 64 it would be impossible to choose a preferred group to compete against. Anyone could have come through.

I estimate that all the competing table tennis players, except the New Zealanders, would enjoy a large degree of financial security which would enable them to train and play table tennis full time.

My general impressions were that it was tremendous to be able to arrive early enough to complete final preparations in the right climate as factors such as humidity, temperature etc can have a marked effect on the ball in flight. For Peter Jackson to attend just for the doubles event was difficult as this has never before occurred in major international competition. Perhaps some kind of BGrade singles could be played to cater specifically for athletes who qualified only for the doubles. I understand that some sports grade players through qualification and this system could be considered for table tennis.

The organisation for the competition was a credit to the organising committee with everything running to true Korean precision.

I understand that the crowds which attended the table tennis were consistently higher during all periods of each day than for any other sport at the Games.

Constant contact was made by Tim Donoghue of NZ Press Association for results and any other snippets worthy of mention. We had three radio interviews that I know were broadcast in New Zealand. Very disappointing was the fact that we never saw or heard from the television people at all. Some of our matches were recorded by the Networks in attendance and it seems a shame that even a short news item could not have been televised in New Zealand. As far as I can ascertain only the final of the men's singles received television in New Zealand.

All members of the table tennis section felt privileged to be part of the Olympic Games and were greatly stimulated by the overall experience. New Zealand can be proud of the efforts of Barry Griffiths and Peter Jackson even though they did not win any medals. The atmosphere generated by so many world class athletes in so many disciplines had to be felt to be appreciated. There was a tremendous feeling of friendship generated by everyone in attendance which will remain an experience never to be forgotten.

I am sure that the NZTTA, within their financial constraints, will continue to strive to assist athletes to reach their full playing potential and so represent New Zealand at future Olympic Games with credit.

REGIONAL SQUAD COACHING

Some areas have been successful in operating a comprehensive programme, others not so. Where problems occur is in the staffing of sessions. Some associations seem not to use or encourage the coaches being trained so the opportunities to gain valuable practical experience to reach regional level are inhibited greatly. Regional squads are there to link association training to what happens nationally and to prepare players for the next level of competition.

NATIONAL JUNIOR COACHING SCHOOLS

Hutt Valley became the host for the slightly different format of these schools. The sexes were separated and the age ranges of U15 and U17 linked with a smaller number in each school. The Under 15 groups included in the programme the Top 12 events and the Under 17 trials towards team selection, all of which furnished the selectors with more information.

NZ SPORTS FOUNDATION

The NZ Sports Foundation assisted with $8,000 for Maxine Goldie (development), Barry Griffiths and Peter Jackson (international) and Peter Hirst (coaching.)

They have agreed in principle that should additional funding become available they would look favourably on a national development squad. This will be tremendous if we can.

GENERAL COACHING

Coaching has continued in many associations with an emphasis on educational demonstrations in schools as well as promotional visits to clubs. Many associations took up the option to hold sessions for players not included in representative squads, helping to make coaching available to a wider range of people.

The problem still exists with some associations of follow-up to promotional activities. People need to feel welcome in a club and association environment until confidence grows. The link between promotion and clubs needs to be strengthened.

COACHES COURSES

Coaches don't just materialise - they have to be trained. Once involved in training they need to be encouraged, used and recognised by clubs and associations. Coaching is a science and an art. The basis stems from fact not opinion. To acquire knowledge takes time. Playing ability rarely generates knowledge of a scientific nature.

We have on the drawing board an accreditation scheme ready to roll except for the money to produce resource material.

This year has seen progress in Kiwi and regional coach education. There was a major breakthrough into the colleges of education with 140 graduating teachers attending table tennis education courses.

KIWI SPORT

Kiwi Sport has taken off with a bang as the following statistics supplied by the Hillary Commission indicates:

Total number of schools registered	1,468 (56% of the total number)
Total number of teachers involved	6,532
Total number of girls	71,546
Total number of boys	75,068
Total number of children	146,614
Award scheme teachers involved	2,864
Award scheme pupils involved	60,157 (41%)

The regional breakdown of the schools so far involved is as follows:

Otago	207	Canterbury	128
Nelson/Marlborough	61	Wellington	205
Manawatu	90	Wanganui	34
Hawkes Bay	81	Gisborne	26
Bay of Plenty	142	Waikato	182
Auckland South	89	North Shore/Auckland	73
Northland	107	Taranaki	62

Potentially, we have access to a great number of these schools and some associations are doing their best to help but, sadly, some are not. Our life blood stems from the young and first impressions make a big impact.

Time has been spent at the Otago University to produce the material for a coaching videotape and this could be available in the New Year. New manuals are being prepared which include lesson plans for teachers, hopefully making their job easier.

COACHES ASSOCIATION OF NEW ZEALAND

CANZ is the Body charged with the responsibility of coach education for all sporting codes, offering in-service training at varying levels in the many facets that make up sports coaching. The liaison has been maintained between NZTTA and CANZ in order to keep up with scientific development.

CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE

A trial Centre of Excellence was held in the Wellington region for players who featured in the Top 50 of each of the National Rating Lists. The purpose of the Centre was to assist players to take a greater responsibility for their own development through proper planning and training. It may be possible for further Centres to be opened throughout the country to enable us to monitor and assist national level players on a semi-permanent basis.

NEWSLETTER

This year has seen the start of a national newsletter with two issues being published so far. It will rely on input from readers for it to grow and so far subscriptions have been encouraging.

SKILLS AWARDS

Six levels of a Skills Award have been developed with the first three designed for Kiwi Table Tennis and the remaining three for the developing club player. All the levels have been linked to show a progression of the skills of table tennis and will prove to be a valuable asset for NZTTA.

CONCLUSION

The new year will see even more exciting progress if things come to fruition. I am hoping for the upgrading of the backup material available and its further development for table tennis to continue to move along its chosen path.

TREASURER'S REPORT

The 1988 financial year was another difficult period for the Association. Net working capital decreased from $9,984 in 1987 to $633 at 31 October, 1988. Steps are being taken to arrest the deterioration in current funds for 1989.

For the main activities of the year, our top senior players went to the Olympic Games, Asian championships, Oceania championships and the Australian senior championships. Four junior teams went to the Australian U15/U17 championships in Adelaide and two teams went to Mackay for the U19/U21 championships. Two National Junior coaching schools were held in Petone.

The costs of overseas tours were funded by The NZ Olympic and Commonwealth Games Association, $6,000, NZ Sports Foundation, $4,000, NZTTA, $3,547, and the balance by the players.

A grant of $20,000 was received from the Hillary Commission for Recreation and Sport towards administration costs, $6,000, and coaching costs, $14,000. $5,000 was received in sponsorship for administration from Commercial Union General Insurance Co Ltd for the second year of a three year sponsorship contract. Barnett Sports Ltd was unable to continue their coaching grant while John Vaughan & Co Ltd still have to pay their 1988 ball sponsorship of $1,900. A change in accounting policy to only include cash received as income precluded this amount of $1,900 being taken in as a debtor.

Income from the new activity fee concept, levies, lottery guarantee and the release of the 1987 coaching levy reserve brought in $73,153 as against $70,404 for 1987. Inter-club team numbers are still falling and to arrest any further decline in funding, the National Council will propose the introduction of a player registration fee, and a limited lottery to raise overseas travel funds at the 1989 annual general meeting. Togethert with the 1988/89 summer inter-club teams activity fees to be received, the Association hopes to raise $80,000 next year.

For 1989, the Association has received a grant of $40,000 from the Hillary Commission to fund marketing development $5,000, coaching programmes $29,000 and administration $6,000 as part of the five year plan to develop table tennis. Expenditure can be expected to increase by 4% to 6%. If the 1989 proposals are adopted, the Association should be able to meet all its commitments and have a surplus available to subsidise overseas tours far greater than the Association could afford in the last three years.

1988 RANKINGS

At the 1988 Annual General Meeting, it was resolved that rankings be prepared by the Ranking and Seeding sub-committee without being wholly based on any rating system. The National Council subsequently clarified the position by resolving that the 1988 rankings take into account the ratings plus all available senior and junior open championships within New Zealand. To qualify for a ranking, players must have competed in a minimum of four Rating tournaments, a requirement which could be waived, as appropriate, for players training and competing overseas.

The following is the Ranking List for 1988. A number of players did not qualify for a ranking due to insufficient performances in the respective categories.

9TH ASIAN CHAMPIONSHIPS Held in Niigata, Japan, 15-22 May.

Teams - Men: Barry Griffiths, Peter Jackson, Alan Pedley, Alan Shewan.

Women: Sharon Coad, Maxine Goldie, Sarah Sandley.

Non-playing captains: Geoff Rau and Peter Hirst.

In his report, Peter Hirst commented: "With an overall budget of $NZ4 million, the tournament was destined to be a great success. Everything went just like clockwork from an organisational point of view. There was a small army of liaison people made up of Council employees and volunteers from an English speaking society - our quota was ten so we had somebody with us at all times. A major point of interest was the uniformed umpires in teams of five for every contest.

"Television played a major part at the event with cameras in the hotel corridors as well as the playing hall and everywhere in between. Coverage was measured in hours rather than minutes with coverage of major matches each day. The major network produced a three-quarter hour programme about the teams attending the championships as well as the sporting spectacle."

Teams Events

Peter Hirst noted in his report: "Seedings were based on the last Asian and World championships which worked against New Zealand as we were not represented at the last Asian championships with our strongest team because of the costs which have to be born by our players.

"Our men's first stage group comprised China, Taipei, Hong Kong, New Zealand and Bangladesh, seeded in that order. The first contest was against Hong Kong which we narrowly lost 4-5. At the completion of this first stage the winners of each group played for positions 1-4, the second teams for positions 5-8, third teams 9-12, fourth teams 13-16, fifth teams 17-20 etc. China gained 1st place, Taipei 5th, Hong Kong 9th, New Zealand 13th and Bangladesh 17th, proving that the Group that we had been placed in was the strongest in the competition. A good comparison would be with Australia who narrowly beat Iran 5-4 whereas we beat them 5-0. Australia gained 8th place against our 13th. The women's team was in an identical situation and gained 14th place overall."

In addition, silver or bronze medals were won in the men's doubles, women's doubles and mixed doubles.

"New Caledonia organised the championships extremely well under the direction of Dominique Mazzoni, the Tournament Manager, and Patrick Gillman, the Referee. The overall presentation with Opening and Medal ceremonies which included national anthems and flag raising was quite impressive.

"The New Zealand Consul-General to New Caledonia, Mr David Atkins, attended several sessions during the tournament and with his wife for the finals."

1988 AUSTRALIAN U15 AND U17 CHAMPIONSHIPS Held in Perth 26 June - 1 July

The New Zealand party comprised the following:

Under 17 Boys: Hagen Bower (Auckland), Darren Sears (Hutt Valley), Brendon Sparrow (Otago), Aaron Winborn (Auckland.)

Under 17 Girls: Kelly Allan (Wanganui), Janene Chandler (Otago), Carolyn Jenkins (Mid-Canterbury), Debra King (Southland.)

Under 15 Boys: Michael Blackmore (Wellington), Paul Bowman (Auckland), Chris Hickling (Hutt Valley), Tom White (Hutt Valley.)

Under 15 Girls: Barbara Dickey (Hamilton), Tracey Epps (Auckland), Melanie Low (Auckland), Kirsten Pitcher (Hutt Valley.)

Non-Playing Captains: Peter Hirst, Martin Duffy, David Jackson and Alan Pedley.

In his report Peter Hirst commented "The overall aim with junior teams representing New Zealand is to learn and experience as much as possible about international table tennis. It is viewed as an apprenticeship for senior representative play. A very good junior, when compared with a good senior, shows to some degree the amount of work necessary to make them into good players. Young people improve at different stages and ages and rates and, therefore, they should not be pressured whilst on New Zealand duty to win but to be directed towards a good performance produced from an honest effort to get things better. The above affects all decisions with young New Zealand players. If it brings titles, great, but if it brings improvement and a better understanding of what international table tennis is all about, then that is even better.

"To achieve the maximum benefit for all concerned the most experienced and best available people are needed to direct the activities. The staff chosen were selected because of their deep understanding of the many facets of table tennis and because they attended formal training courses on the principles of sports coaching, the syllabus for which has evolved over many years from proven facts, not just dreamed up for what seemed right at the time. They also bring many life skills, all being experienced in supervisory and management roles. It seems a shame that they all had to pay over $1,600 for the privilege of working up to 16 hours a day offering a group of young people the benefits of their ability. The rules, I feel, will have to change next year.

"All team members gave their best effort and did their country proud. New Zealand teams are commanding respect, both on and off the table, wherever they travel to and this year was no exception. A team party of twenty presents quite diverse problems but due to the co-operation of team members all problems were sorted out as they arose. Each year we seem to get it a little better."

Members of the Under 17 teams each paid $1,425 and members of the Under 15 teams each paid $1,675 to attend the championships.

All players and officials were outfitted with Butterfly clothing and supplied with sheets of Butterfly rubber sponsored by Tamasu Co Ltd.
